622. Absolutely!! Even worse, the whistleblowers are effectively blacklisted partially because no "reputable" laboratory wants to hire anyone whose ethics are likely to exceed their loyalty.

665. Human Nature
666. IN: CRIMINAL LAW| 0 COMMENTS
667. Wikipedia defines âhuman natureâ? as;
668.
669. human nature is the fundamental nature and substance of humans, as well as the range of human behavior that is believed to be invariant over long periods of time and across very different cultural contexts.
670.
671. In Jersey a scandal has emerged.
672.
673. Firstly, there is abundant evidence of serious child abuse in Haut de la Garenne childrenâs home. Human remains have been found in the premises.
674.
675. Secondly, the police are interviewing former child inmates and other witnesses relating to the premises and have made the following statement;
676.
677. Part of the inquiry will be the fact that a lot of the victims tried to report their assaults but for some reason or another they were not dealt with as they should be,â? he said.
678.
679. We are looking at allegations that a number of agencies didnât deal with things as perhaps they should, we are looking at all the agencies.â?
680.
681. Should we not ask; was the police force one of the agencies?
682.
683. The police statement is itself misleading. The police investigate crime (we hope); is it a crime to neglect your duty? If it is not, why are the police suggesting that they are investigating âthe agenciesâ?? Is that not a PR stance by the police?
684.

685. The title of this post is not a reference to the capacity for evil by individual abusers, but the incorrigible tendency for institutions to be corrupted and to pervert their original purpose. In short, there is an appreciable probability that, in any particular case, an institution charged with a purpose will be used to defeat that purpose.
686.
687. Consider this; in the writerâs experience when the word âindependentâ? is associated with the title of any institution, it is invariably the case that the institution is not âindependentâ?"

I crosspost this to the Usenet newsgroups news:pt.ciencia.geral and news:de.soc.studium and news:it.istruzione.universita and news:soc.college.grad and I send this via Bcc (blind carbon copy) to Ana Isabel Mateus of the Portuguese General Directorate for Higher Education (Direcção Geral do Ensino Superior, DGES); A. Â. M. D. of DGES; the rector of the University of Coimbra (as he received the email which I am responding to via Cc (carbon copy)); Dr. L. J. P. de F. N. of the University of Coimbra (ditto); S. S. da S. of the University of Coimbra; and S. V. F. of DGES; and I send this via Cc to Hugo Alexandre Sena of the Portuguese National Academic Recognition Information Center (NARIC, part of DGES).

Dear Ana Isabel Mateus,

I applied in 2008 to the Portuguese Foundation for Science and Technology (Fundação para a Ciência e Tecnologia, FCT) for a scholarship. In the xenophobic campaign of FCT, FCT pretended that one of my foreign degrees was of a very low classification. That supposedly poor degree was used as a lame excuse - the only excuse - to deprive me of the scholarship.

I requested help from the Portuguese National Academic Recognition Information Center (NARIC) in the matter. Instead, the NARIC tricked me and conned me into paying for help which it never provided. I later paid a less dubious entity for what it called "reconhecimento" (recognition) of a less inaccurate classification of a foreign degree. This later document has been of more use.

I demanded a refund from the Portuguese NARIC, but it was so evil as to laugh at me. In 2011 I still do not have the scholarship and I struggle to pay university fees; food bills; and rent for a home: I struggle to stay alive. Though the FCT is more vicious to me than the still evil Portuguese NARIC, the focus in this Usenet post is on the Portuguese NARIC because something which the Portuguese NARIC is a part of (the Portuguese General Directorate for Higher Education, Direcção Geral do Ensino Superior, DGES) threatened to sue me.

Ana Isabel Mateus sent on April 20th, 2011:

|----------|
|"Dear Mr. Nicholas Gloucester, |
|In regard to your emails of 12th January and 4th May we would like to inform you of the |
|following: |
|In August 2009 you telephoned this Directorate General requesting information about the motives|
|of the refusal of your application for a scholarship from the Foundation for Science and |
Technology (FCT)."

I actually originally telephoned DGES re the refusal by FCT in February 2009. The NARIC of DGES did not bother to act on that telephone call, and I telephoned again in July 2009 and August 2009.

|----------|
|" We informed you that FCT is an independent government body and therefore this | Directorate-General could not interfere in the decisions made by it."

No, on the contrary, on August 5th, 2009 I asked DGES how to force FCT to obey a law by recognising a foreign degree and DGES said that FCT must obey the law. DGES did not even try to compel FCT to act legally. On August 5th, 2009 DGES said: "FCT cannot recognise your diploma".

|----------|
|" However, and given that |

938.|you presented an Irish degree, this Directorate-General could recognise it according to the |
939.|Licenciado Portuguese degree, as foreseen by Decree-Law nr. 341/2007, 12th October, and this |
940.|might help your application." |
941.|----------|
942.
943.You did not provide me with recognition of the value of the Irish degree, which was the only lame excuse which FCT used at the time.
944.
945.|----------|
946.|" We also explained that we could not convert your final mark |
947.|according to the Portuguese system given that the technical rules to do so have not yet been |
948.|established for the Republic of Ireland." |
949.|----------|
950.
951.DGES has first claimed this after I had paid. DGES also claimed that this problem would not last very long. On August 5th, 2009 DGES said that the recognition would take a maximum of 30 days. On October 23rd, 2009 DGES said that I will have the recognition "next week". On Friday November 13th, 2009 DGES said that the recognition would be ready the next week after then. DGES never gave me the recognition.
952.
953.On December 9th, 2009 DGES said it would telephone me in January 2010 re giving me the recognition, but DGES did not contact me until April 20th, 2011 (still without the recognition) when threatening to sue me.
954.
955.|----------|
956.|"According to the information we previously provided, on the 4th of September 2009 you requested|
957.|the recognition of your diploma at this Directorate-General and sent by post the original of |
958.|your bachelor degree, the statement of examination results and four other documents issued by |

966.
967.Portuguese degrees have classifications. Irish degrees have classifications. You did not send me a Portuguese classification.
968.
969.What was the purpose of sending to DGES "examination results and [..] other documents issued by the Dublin City University concerning [..my] performance as a student"? I expected a Portuguese classification. I sent them accompanied by the letter of September 3rd, 2009 which contained:

#As already asked by email and by phone and as yet still unanswered, how can I # #force FCT (the Foundation for Science and Technology) to replace its illegal #
#misinterpretation of my primary degree with your official recognition? This is # #extremely important and I can not wait forever. As a result of misconduct by the # #Foundation for Science and Technology, I paid the doctoral fees for the academic # #contributions of a doctoral scholarship. I understandably want to be reimbursed the # #3026.65 Euro and I want the missing Social Security contributions. #

#[..] #
#I look forward to your help with this difficult situation. #
#As I mentioned in my email entitled "RE: FCT had no legal basis to misinterpret a # #foreign degree" timestamped "Tue, 18 Aug 2009 12:36:53 +0000 (UTC)" to Dr. Maria #
#Manuela Couto Paiva, I do not know how to apply for recognition of my primary #

Ana Isabel Mateus also sent on April 20th, 2011:
|----------|
"On the 12th of January 2011, you sent an email requesting the recognition of your diploma"

I still have not received the owed recognition from DGES.

|----------|
"saying that you paid for it,"

I did pay for it.

|----------|
|" and accusing this Directorate-General of not recognising it. In |
|the same email you still insist that this Directorate General did nothing regarding the | acceptance of your application for an FCT scholarship,"

DGES did nothing about my case and I do not have a scholarship.

|----------|
|" even though we had already explained |
|that this Directorate-General is not competent to do so, given that is an independent and | internal procedure that only involves the Foundation."

These clauses from DGES this week contradict what DGES had claimed before I had paid. What was the purpose of paying DGES?

|----------|

|"On the morning of the 2nd of March 2011, we received a telephone call from you requesting, once|
|again, the recognition of your diploma, even though we had already sent it in November of 2009. |
|When questioned if you received the registered diploma by post you finally confirmed that you |
|had received it diploma dully recognized and that the problem now was the conversion of your | final mark, which we had also already explained that we could not do"

The final mark is a significant part of recognition.

|----------|
|" Nonetheless we explained |
|again that this Directorate General could not convert your final grade because the technical |
|rules to proceed to the conversation of final marks from Ireland were not yet officially |
|defined by the competent Commission for the Recognition of Foreign Diplomas. Given this, we |
|explained that in case you need a final mark according to the Portuguese grading system you |
|need to apply for an equivalence directly to a Portuguese higher education institution for a |
|scientific re-evaluation of the work carried out during your degree in order to obtain a |
|casuistic assessment of its merit and also a final mark. |
|In the same phone call you accused us of never giving you the necessary information about the |
|conversion of your final mark, and because of this you demanded a refund of the fees that you |
|paid for the recognition of your diploma (€25). In that phone we tried to explain that this is |
|our procedure to all the requests we receive, and that we accordingly inform every one of the |
|competences of this Directorate General and the higher education institutions regarding all | procedures for academic recognition."

DGES did not bother to inform me of any shortcomings of DGES before it was too late. However, DGES itself hypocritically insists on unequivocal candor from graduates submitting documents for recognition.

|----------|
|" Regardless of this, you still insisted on receiving a |
|refund of the fees in such a tone that made it impossible to continue the conversation, and | when we tried to transfer the call to the head of office you had hung up."

I insisted on a refund so Hugo Alexandre Sena laughed at me. I remarked that I need this money to eat, but from then on from the other end of the telephone I could hear only silence. If Hugo Alexandre Sena had been trying to transfer the call to someone else during the long silence, I had been uninformed of this and hence unaware of this and this would be unfortunate.

"On the 4th of March 2011 you sent us another email presenting very serious accusations,"

True accusations.

" that we consider to have no proof whatsoever according to the facts here presented"

I do not know whether or not the Portuguese NARIC has also tricked Ana Isabel Mateus.

" We must therefore stress that this Directorate-General has already recognized your diploma on the28th of October 2009, and has sent it by post to the address that you provided. In case you need a final mark according to the Portuguese grading scale you need to apply for an equivalence directly to a Portuguese higher education institution. We also inform you that FCT is an independent government body and this Directorate General cannot interfere in the decisions made by it.
In case you insist on making accusations as you have made previously, and given the seriousness of their content we will have to proceed with the adequate legal measures to ensure that the good name and competence of our professionals, as well as of this Directorate-General, are duly maintained.
Best regards,
Ana Mateus
Head of Unit"

If you take me to court, you will not win.

Yours sincerely,
Nicholas Collin Paul Gloucester

A longer excerpt of an email which Ana Isabel Mateus sent on April 20th, 2011 (including excerpts above):

"Dear Mr. Nicholas Gloucester,
In regard to your emails of 12th January and 4th May we would like to inform you of the following:

|In August 2009 you telephoned this Directorate General requesting information about the motives|
|of the refusal of your application for a scholarship from the Foundation for Science and |
|Technology (FCT). We informed you that FCT is an independent government body and therefore this|
|Directorate-General could not interfere in the decisions made by it. However, and given that |
|you presented an Irish degree, this Directorate-General could recognise it according to the |
|Licenciado Portuguese degree, as foreseen by Decree-Law nr. 341/2007, 12th October, and this |
|might help your application. We also explained that we could not convert your final mark |
|according to the Portuguese system given that the technical rules to do so have not yet been |
|established for the Republic of Ireland. |
|According to the information we previously provided, on the 4th of September 2009 you requested|
|the recognition of your diploma at this Directorate-General and sent by post the original of |
|your bachelor degree, the statement of examination results and four other documents issued by |
|the Dublin City University concerning your performance as a student. |
|This Directorate-General recognised the Bachelor Irish degree to the Licenciado Portuguese |
|degree and registered it with the number 285/2009, on the 28th of October 2009. After that the |
|documentation was returned to the address that you provided in the Department of Physics of the|
|University of Coimbra. |
|On the 12th of January 2011, you sent an email requesting the recognition of your diploma |
|saying that you paid for it, and accusing this Directorate-General of not recognising it. In |
|the same email you still insist that this Directorate General did nothing regarding the |
|acceptance of your application for an FCT scholarship, even though we had already explained |
|that this Directorate-General is not competent to do so, given that is an independent and |
|internal procedure that only involves the Foundation. |
|On the morning of the 2nd of March 2011, we received a telephone call from you requesting, once|
|again, the recognition of your diploma, even though we had already sent it in November of 2009.|
|When questioned if you received the registered diploma by post you finally confirmed that you |
|had received it diploma dully recognized and that the problem now was the conversion of your |

|final mark, which we had also already explained that we could not do Nonetheless we explained |
|again that this Directorate General could not convert your final grade because the technical |
|rules to proceed to the conversation of final marks from Ireland were not yet officially |
|defined by the competent Commission for the Recognition of Foreign Diplomas. Given this, we |
|explained that in case you need a final mark according to the Portuguese grading system you |
|need to apply for an equivalence directly to a Portuguese higher education institution for a |
|scientific re-evaluation of the work carried out during your degree in order to obtain a |
|casuistic assessment of its merit and also a final mark. |
|In the same phone call you accused us of never giving you the necessary information about the |
|conversion of your final mark, and because of this you demanded a refund of the fees that you |
|paid for the recognition of your diploma (€25). In that phone we tried to explain that this is |
|our procedure to all the requests we receive, and that we accordingly inform every one of the |
|competences of this Directorate General and the higher education institutions regarding all |
|procedures for academic recognition. Regardless of this, you still insisted on receiving a |
|refund of the fees in such a tone that made it impossible to continue the conversation, and |
|when we tried to transfer the call to the head of office you had hung up. |
|On the 4th of March 2011 you sent us another email presenting very serious accusations, that we|
|consider to have no proof whatsoever according to the facts here presented We must therefore |
|stress that this Directorate-General has already recognized your diploma on the28th of October |
|2009, and has sent it by post to the address that you provided. In case you need a final mark |

|Assunto: NARIC is evil re: "Misinterpretation of a foreign degree" |
|Dear [..], |
|Thank you for the good wishes and the attempt to help me. For the sakes of other innocent |
|victims, I inform you that unfortunately, the Portuguese NARIC stole money from me and defaced |
|the parchment which I sent to the Portuguese NARIC and the Portuguese NARIC did not help me at |
|all despite the payment which I made to the NARIC for help and it wasted precious time by lying|
|to me that it would help if I paid it. |
|The dispute against the FCT which illegally, xenophobically discriminates against me by not |
|paying me a scholarship continues. The NARIC did nothing to support the case, so I telephoned |
|to speak to Maria Manuela Couto Paiva of the NARIC on Wednesday 2nd March 2011 at 10:28a.m. but|
|as is often the case, she was too lazy to answer the telephone. So at 10:31a.m. that morning I |
|telephoned Hugo Alexandre Sena of the NARIC, who then claimed for the first time ever that the |
|NARIC does not provide a service of recognising classifications of foreign degrees (which is |
|what I paid the NARIC to do more than a year earlier). So I demanded a refund and Hugo |
|Alexandre Sena laughed at me. I remarked that I need this money to eat, but Hugo Alexandre Sena|
|I empathise that you "still had no answer" from the NARIC: the NARIC is unresponsive. |

|For a long time I have been planning to provide you with advice for other innocent victims, but|
|so far I have still not managed to force the FCT to yield the scholarship to me, so I do not |
|necessarily know useful advice to mention. |

If it is according to Bologna standards, FCT has to accept it even if the standards were not implemented in Portugal at the time you got your |degree. 2) After completing first year I learned that the laws about foreigners might have been changed and I can apply for Bolsa Individual,

3) I applied in May 2011

4) Immediately after sealing my application I received an e/mail taht I have been dismissed because of lack of "residencia permanente"

5) I anyway asked my supervisor to seal my application, ignoring the e0mail that I had received.

6)In september I obtained results according to which my score wasn;t high enough, but:

- all my "A" from diplomas were counted as "B"

- I anyway found myself on the list of tenants, with final score 4.00[÷ 5.00 = 80% = A = céim le céadonóracha],

, but becasue of this STRANGE RULE which says "everybody will be treated equally, ignoring the nacionality.Foreign students must have biger score than the average of portuguese students" - I was discarded.

7) I appealed, and waited 3 months

8) My apeal letter was redirected to second round of appeal starting from January this year

9) And I am still waiting for an answer - had to stop my course, becasue I have to money to pay for it... And my carrier and stay in [. . .] is under big question mark.

"I would like to follow on the contact made via [. . . fisiceoir gallda], a colleague from a collective for the defence of independence of research.

I am [. . .] with PhD and habilitation educated in the UK, Germany and France. In 2006 I was recruited as professor at the University of [. . .] science. I was employed as scientific director of the [. . .] Institute to coordinate international projects [. . .] and develop applied research [. . .] But the moment I started to give talks, publish and organise research on [. . .] climate change and coordinate large European projects, the trouble began. The pressure on my university by the [. . .] industry and local politicians to stop me from working on this theme was immense. [. . .] Although I brought in more than 4 million Euros of research funding a real witch hunt began in order to destroy my scientific career. None of the steps taken to silence me were ever discussed or voted in any councils and I was never given a chance to defend myself in front of any councils.

I was removed without evaluation or valid reason from all the European projects that I had initiated and coordinated. After I refused to bend to the pressures to resign from the direction of my [. . .] unit, it was closed. The managing director of the [. . .] Institute was replaced by a non-specialist appointed directly by the local government [. . .] who started to define and block my research. All my funding, my PhD and postdoc students and trainees were taken away from me. My special benefits were cut, my work accidents refused, my international collaborations blocked, my travel permissions declined, my professional mobile phone cut off [. . .] and my post opened. Although I had limited teaching, I was suddenly asked to do a full teaching load outside my qualifications and field of competences. An offer for a prestigious sabbatical at the University of Colorado was declined and the reasons falsified in the council meeting minutes. Everything that I have developed has been taken over by a neighbouring institute. There have also been attempts to take away my office from me. In a last step to destroy me and my family (I have two children and a retired husband) the president, who has never met me, has announced with 4 weeks delay to more or less totally cut my salary for a year referring to my teaching load 2011/2012. This action comes as a complete surprise. The university has not written to me with reference to my teaching of last year for more than a year and has never answered my letters on this issue.

"Academic students face a unique set of problems when they experience bullying by supervisors, staff, etc, it seems they have even fewer rights than those in a workplace bullying setting, and these people have few enough. Universities pay lip service to student support, through student unions and assistance offices, but these are mere puppets of the system. Once that system is corrupt, the little people have no power at all as the university staff and associates tread all over the students with impunity. They can break or make a career, and in my experience corruption has been rife through the university community. What is needed is a truly independent body that is above corruption and will actually listen and acknowledge students' problems. But who can produce that? Look at South Australia's struggle with that idea:http://www.theaustralian.com.au/news/south-australia-to-get-an-independent-commission-against-corruption-after-laws-pass-upper-house/story-e6frg6n6-1226525127889

My own experience in South Australia as a student at university has been appalling. I have faced a campaign of active sabotage, framing, slander and a closing of ranks that has seen professors, lecturers and high officials all deny me a voice and a career. I sit at home now, jobless and studyless, years on since finishing my degree, unable to get back on my feet as they continue to bully me even though I have removed myself completely from their environment. Their latest trick: granting me an interview at a different university for a postgrad place, bullying and humiliating me through every step of the interview process (I was so anxious I was on beta blockers anyway), then denying me a place. I have a strong academic record, life experience, and despite everything the interview went well, I couldn't have done any better. But this was another emotional bullying tactic. These people are running a thuggish, criminal racket, exploiting their professional status and networks to protect themselves from accountability and to enable their shocking tactics to continue. It is my belief that their actions actively led to the death of another student, but I cannot prove this as they control all the information.

On a more positive note, you might be interested to read some of the literature around this:

1502. But students in academia have no one, no unions, no work safe rules, nothing to stop them being 1) unpaid labour for those staff inclined to use it; and 2) any voice at all against the veto of their superiors. If someone is to be shunned, that is it for them and their career, especially in a small town where corruption appears to be rife.

I am entitled to substantial compensation for the injury to my reputation and feelings, as to which I invite your proposals. In respect of damages I will point to the following facts and matters:

- you dishonestly prejudice me since more than 8 years ago;
- you are vicariously liable for Ms. Filipa Morão Machado;
- you are vicariously liable for Laboratório de Instrumentação e Física Experimental de Partículas – LIP;
- you are vicariously liable for Mr. Rui Miguel Curado da Silva;
- you are vicariously liable for persons of Coimbra University;
- you provide miscommunication infrastructure to Mr. Rui Miguel Curado da Silva; Laboratório de Instrumentação e Física Experimental de Partículas – LIP; and persons of Coimbra University;
- you had sent me on a dangerous wild-goose chase in bad faith;
- you had and have perpetrated and perpetrate illegalities against me with the purpose of sabotaging my livelihood and reputation;

1764. “I am a witness about subornation of perjury (incited by putatively Judiciary Policewomen Sandra Roxo and Manuela Pereira) and agents of the Public-Security Police covering up torture by court order (Process Number 373/13.5TBCBR, 3º Juízo Criminal de Coimbra, signed by court judge Sara André dos Reis Marques and district attorney Vera Cristina da Silva Gomes de Oliveira). They caused 3 murders. I had complained to the Belgian police about murderer Dr. Rui Miguel Curado da Silva but the Belgian police have let him escape to Portugal where he has murdered 3 men.” arsa mise trí LinkedIn ón 22/03/2024.

11. I am directed by the ''Minister for Justice, Simon Harris, T.D.'' to thank you for your email dated 18/04/2023, the contents of which have been noted. However, as this matter is more appropriate to the Department of Foreign Affairs, I have referred your correspondence to that Department for appropriate attention.

Yours sincerely,

Emma McHugh
Private Secretary to the Minister for Justice

Please note that if the issue raised in your correspondence is deemed more appropriate to another organisation, such as another Government Department or Agency, your correspondence will be forwarded to that organisation for attention in accordance with the provisions of the Department of Justice Privacy Statement, which can be accessed here.

“Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court [. . .]
Article 7
Crimes against humanity
1. For the purpose of this Statute, “crime against humanity” means any of the following acts when committed as part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against any civilian population, with knowledge of the attack:
[. . .]
(f) Torture;
[. . .]
(h) Persecution against any identifiable group or collectivity on political, racial, national, ethnic, cultural, religious, gender as defined in paragraph 3, or other grounds that are universally recognized as impermissible under international law, in connection with any act referred to in this paragraph or any crime within the jurisdiction of the Court; [. . .]
(e) “Torture” means the intentional infliction of severe pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, upon a person in the custody or under the control of the accused; except that torture shall not include pain or suffering arising only from, inherent in or incidental to, lawful sanctions; [. . .]
(g) “Persecution” means the intentional and severe deprivation of fundamental rights contrary to international law by reason of the identity of the group or collectivity; [. . .]
Article 14 Referral of a situation by a State Party 1. A State Party may refer to the Prosecutor a situation in which one or more crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court appear to have been committed requesting the Prosecutor to investigate the situation for the purpose of determining whether one or more specific persons should be charged with the commission of such crimes.

2. As far as possible, a referral shall specify the relevant circumstances and be accompanied by such supporting documentation as is available to the State referring the situation.”

Feictear dúinn, ón eolas a chuir tú faoinár mbráid, go bhfuil an chosúlacht ar an scéal go bhféadfadh sé go bhfuil An Roinn Dlí agus Cirt ag sárú an dualgas reachtúil teanga atá orthu maidir le cumarsáid i scríbhinn a fhreagairt sa teanga oifigiúil chéanna sa gcás seo. Is mar seo a leanas atá fo-alt 9(2) d'Acht 2003, an fó-mhír ábhartha:

'9.-(2) I gcás ina ndéanfaidh duine cumarsáid i dteanga oifigiúil le comhlacht poiblí, i scríbhinn nó leis an bpost leictreonach, freagróidh an comhlacht poiblí sa teanga céanna.'

Mar is eol duit, tharraingíomar do ghearán anuas leis an Roinn.

Tá freagra faighte againn ón Roinn Dlí anois ag gabháil leithscéal leat nár cuireadh freagra ar fáil duit i nGaeilge sa chás áirithe seo. Dhearbhaigh an Roinn dúinn go bhfuil an foireann curtha ar an eolas faoin dualgas atá orthu faoin Acht agus go háirithe an dualgas maidir le cumarsáid i nGaeilge a fhreagairt sa teanga oifigiúil céanna.

Tá sé i gceist againn an comhad seo a dhúnadh ó tharla leithscéal a bheith gafa ag an Roinn agus socruithe a bheith curtha i bhfeidhm le teacht roimh botúin den chinéal seo sa todhchaí.

18. "Dear Nioclás Pól Caileán de Ghloucester ,

19. I am directed by the Minister for Justice, Simon Harris, T.D. to thank you for your email dated 18/04/2023, the contents of which have been noted. However, as this matter is more appropriate to the Department of Foreign Affairs, I have referred your correspondence to that Department for appropriate attention.

Yours sincerely,

Emma McHugh
Private Secretary to the Minister for Justice

Please note that if the issue raised in your correspondence is deemed more appropriate to another organisation, such as another Government Department or Agency, your correspondence will be forwarded to that organisation for attention in accordance with the provisions of the Department of Justice Privacy Statement, which can be accessed here.

“Rome Statute of the International Criminal
Court
[. . .]
Article 7
Crimes against humanity
1. For the purpose of this Statute, “crime against humanity” means any of the following acts when committed as part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against any civilian population, with knowledge of the attack:
[. . .]
(f) Torture;
[. . .]
(h) Persecution against any identifiable group or collectivity on political, racial, national, ethnic, cultural, religious, gender as defined in paragraph 3, or other grounds that are universally recognized as impermissible under international law, in connection with any act referred to in this paragraph or any crime within the jurisdiction of the Court; [. . .]
(e) “Torture” means the intentional infliction of severe pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, upon a person in the custody or under the control of the accused; except that torture shall not include pain or suffering arising only from, inherent in or incidental to, lawful sanctions; [. . .]
(g) “Persecution” means the intentional and severe deprivation of fundamental rights contrary to international law by reason of the identity of the group or collectivity; [. . .] Article 14 Referral of a situation by a State Party 1. A State Party may refer to the Prosecutor a situation in which one or more crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court appear to have been committed requesting the Prosecutor to investigate the situation for the purpose of determining whether one or more specific persons should be charged with the commission of such crimes.

2. As far as possible, a referral shall specify the relevant circumstances and be accompanied by such supporting documentation as is available to the State referring the situation.”

“Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court
[. . .]
Article 7
Crimes against humanity
1. For the purpose of this Statute, “crime against humanity” means any of the following acts when committed as part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against any civilian population, with knowledge of the attack:
[. . .]
(f) Torture;
[. . .]
(h) Persecution against any identifiable group or collectivity on political, racial, national, ethnic, cultural, religious, gender as defined in paragraph 3, or other grounds that are universally recognized as impermissible under international law, in connection with any act referred to in this paragraph or any crime within the jurisdiction of the Court; [. . .]
(e) “Torture” means the intentional infliction of severe pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, upon a person in the custody or under the control of the accused; except that torture shall not include pain or suffering arising only from, inherent in or incidental to, lawful sanctions; [. . .]
(g) “Persecution” means the intentional and severe deprivation of fundamental rights contrary to international law by reason of the identity of the group or collectivity; [. . .] Article 14 Referral of a situation by a State Party 1. A State Party may refer to the Prosecutor a situation in which one or more crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court appear to have been committed requesting the Prosecutor to investigate the situation for the purpose of determining whether one or more specific persons should be charged with the commission of such crimes.
2. As far as possible, a referral shall specify the relevant circumstances and be accompanied by such supporting documentation as is available to the State referring the situation.”

Court
[. . .]
Article 7
Crimes against humanity
1. For the purpose of this Statute, “crime against humanity” means any of the following acts when committed as part of a widespread or systematic attack directed against any civilian population, with knowledge of the attack:
[. . .]
(f) Torture;
(h) Persecution against any identifiable group or collectivity on political, racial, national, ethnic, cultural, religious, gender as defined in paragraph 3, or other grounds that are universally recognized as impermissible under international law, in connection with any act referred to in this paragraph or any crime within the jurisdiction of the Court; [. . .]

(e) “Torture” means the intentional infliction of severe pain or suffering, whether physical or mental, upon a person in the custody or under the control of the accused; except that torture shall not include pain or suffering arising only from, inherent in or incidental to, lawful sanctions; [. . .] (g) “Persecution” means the intentional and severe deprivation of fundamental rights contrary to international law by reason of the identity of the group or collectivity; [. . .] Article 14 Referral of a situation by a State Party 1. A State Party may refer to the Prosecutor a situation in which one or more crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court appear to have been committed requesting the Prosecutor to investigate the situation for the purpose of determining whether one or more specific persons should be charged with the commission of such crimes. 2. As far as possible, a referral shall specify the relevant circumstances and be accompanied by such supporting documentation as is available to the State referring the situation.” arsa HTTPS://WWW.ICC-CPI.int/sites/default/files/Publications/Rome-Statute.pdf

Correction: Bird & Bird Privacy Solutions are, in essence, simply an additional means for you to contact us, the Wikimedia Foundation, either for the purposes of exercising rights under the EU GDPR. For correspondence relating to the EU Digital Services Act, or EU TCO Regulation, a different EU Representative is appointed, but they only exist to relay correspondence from EU "competent authorities", not members of the public such as yourself.

Bird & Bird Privacy Solutions are, in essence, simply an additional means for you to contact us, the Wikimedia Foundation, either for the purposes of exercising rights under the EU GDPR, the EU Digital Services Act, or EU TCO Regulation. People can also just contact us directly, via legal@wikimedia[. . .] That is far more efficient.

From this point onwards, we will accept a single, coherent, concise and non-abusive email from you or your legal representatives, setting out what your actual complaint is. Send it to legal@wikimedia[. . .]; there is no need to send it to Bird & Bird. Failure to comply with this simple request will likely see you blocked from our email systems, and we will encourage Bird & Bird (and their subcontractors, past, present and future) to do the same.

You will still then be able to correspond with us, but by sending us a letter.

Finally, with respect to actions of individual users, e.g. "RonaldB": unless the account in question is prefixed or suffixed with "WMF", we were not involved in it. We do not control or answer for the actions of individual Wikipedians, who are independent members of the public. We also cannot accept service of legal process intended to reach those users; we are not designated agents for service for members of the public. Wikipedia itself provides numerous means of resolving disputes between users, so we suggest you avail yourself of those, [. . .]

Caroline Haughey KC, prosecuting, told jurors during the trial: "Lydia Mugambe has exploited and abused [her alleged victim], taking advantage of her lack of understanding of her rights to properly paid employment and deceiving her as to the purpose of her coming to the UK."

1843. She alleged Mugambe, who was studying for a law PhD at the University of Oxford, had conspired with Ugandan deputy high commissioner John Leonard Mugerwa to arrange for the young woman to come to the UK.

1844. Prosecutors said the pair participated in a "very dishonest" trade-off, in which Mr Mugerwa arranged for the Ugandan High Commission to sponsor the woman's entrance into the UK.
