Statement on Rosscahill fire

"This fire fits a clear pattern of arson attacks of locations where protection applicants were due to be accommodated or actually living. There must be a full investigation. Our unswerving solidarity and support is with all people seeking protection and refugees at this fearful time. Leadership, local and national, is more important than ever. The actions of a small minority will never succeed but they cannot be underestimated and this must be a turning point. Let us also not forget that they are in contrast to the proud history of welcome that communities across Ireland, including in Galway, have shown over the last 30 years."

"I acknowledge receipt of your mail dated 20 December.

I have spoken with our Litigation team, and, unfortunately, we are not in a position to accept instructions in this matter."

said Adrian O'Connell.

Dear Messrs McMurray and O'Connell and everybody else,

A lady at your switchboard said that Mister McMurray's department does work in defamation law. You advertise for mental health. A malicious falsehood which I prevail against is about my mental health, as I use proofs by psychiatrists. This malicious falsehood is republished in all the jurisdictions where you work.

May I ask why you are not in a position to accept instructions in this matter?

I emailed law@Tughans.com sans an answer about Northern Ireland on 02/11/2022.

I emailed Pauline Elaine Christine Walker <pauline.walker@Tughans.com> sans an answer about Scotland on 13/04/2023.

In recognition of World Mental Health Day 2023 and this year's theme 'Mental Health is a Universal Human Right' the team participated in Tughans LLP Annual Bake Off Competition!

Niall McKenna, owner of James St and Waterman House Restaurant & Cookery School, was our Guest Judge for the morning and was impressed by the level of talent, so much so he chose two winners! Congratulations to Caroline McAlister and Lucy Scott for their delicious baking triumphs!

It was fantastic to see the team come together in the spirit of promoting positive mental health and it was a great opportunity to raise further funds for our Charity Partner, TinyLife Charity.

Yesterday I asked Tughans via 2 emails and LinkedIn a question. Cf. HTTP://Gloucester.Insomnia247.NL/Tughans/2023-12-21r_Republications_on_LinkedIn.pdf

I did not receive an answer. Instead, I noticed this morning that this question on a LinkedIn webpage disappeared (but not (yet!) on another LinkedIn webpage) contrarily to ethics of members of a profession. Can you say "1984" – HTTPS://WWW.BBC.co.UK/programmes/m0012j9t – or "Animal Farm: A Fairy Story"?
