Describe in which way you think your personal data has been processed incorrectly

Be detailed but avoid including unnecessarily sensitive personal information about yourself or others.

If you have already contacted the person who processed your personal data, also describe what you submitted then and what the consequences were.

Further down in the form, you can also attach e.g. an email conversation.

Describe in which way you think your personal data has been processed incorrectly

Dear Sir/Madam,

Happy New Year!

I paid a Swedish-law firm to prosecute against Swedish crimes in Sweden by a criminal in Portugal who is not Swedish.

Enter the date of the request

If your complaint is about a request concerning your rights, e.g. the right of access, deletion or correction, we want to know when you first submitted your request to the person who processed your personal data

If you have not been in contact with the person who processed your personal data and made a request concerning your rights, you do not need to enter a date
