"G7081/2024

Nioclás, a chara,

Tagraím don ghearán a rinne tú leis an Oifig seo maidir le hábhar ar suíomh greasáin An tSeirbhís Chúirteanna a bhí ar fáil i mBéarla amháin.

Mar is eol duit, d'fhill an tSeirbhís orainn i mí Lúnasa ag dearbhú go raibh an chuid is mó den suíomh ar fáil i nGaeilge anois, seachas gnéithe áirithe agus foirmeacha atá faoi chúram na Roinne Dlí agus Cirt." arsa Deirdre nic Donncha ar an 03/10/2024 ach leanann Foirmeacha 15.3 agus 15.1 gan leagain Gaeilge fós!

"Nazzal is "angry and upset"

at losing the money but finds it

"outrageous" that organisations he believes should protect people from rental fraud "can't or won't help".

He reported the incident to the Garda in Crumlin, to Daft.ie and AIB.

He contacted gardaí several times over the fortnight after the scam but had no follow-up, he says.

[. . .]

AIB was “sympathetic”, says Nazzal, but could not retrieve his money despite it having been transferred between AIB accounts.

A spokesman for AIB said the bank was “committed to protecting customers against the threats associated with fraud”.¹

It is outrageous that you and your family had to wait so long for justice to be done in connection to Scott's death. It is also very concerning that the inadequacies of the initial investigations may have enabled further crimes to be committed. Nonetheless, you are entitled to be proud and satisfied that your perservance has led to today's result." arsa Leathanach 283 leabhair.⁷
