Narrative

4. This plaintiff wanted to raise issues with guards in Irish.
5. So this plaintiff went to a police station to request guards to accept a complaint.
6. Instead, an Anglophone guard forcefully ejected this plaintiff from this police station.
7. This plaintiff sent forms in Irish to a court as a common informer (i.e. a private criminal prosecutor) and as a litigant in person.
8. This plaintiff went to a court.
9. An unmannerly judge never converses with him. She departed whilst he spoke to her. She ignored him.
10. A guard took him out of this court. That guard ordered this plaintiff to wait for a person to rendezvous with him there to talk about how to prosecute.
11. This plaintiff waited for many minutes but this rendezvous never happens. Instead, a Courts-Service employee departed from this court many minutes later. So this plaintiff attempted to ask her about a rendezvous to proceed with prosecuting but this dismissive underling rudely kept on walking. She ignored him. She said a single word: "No!"
12. A different, unmannerly judge had a conversation with this plaintiff in a court for barely 56 seconds (not minutes)! She spoke only in English to him but these forms are in Irish and he spoke during this hearing only in Irish. She did not even use an interpreter! That judge is dismissive. She refuses to answer questions.

The Global Week Against Torture 2025

14. Cf. this screenshot de this website:

15. Judicial-Council Secretary and Registrar Kevin O'Neill does not exhibit a sincere determination to counter this crime against humanity. Shame on him! There is obviously a conflict of interests because he shall handle this appeal!

16. These policemen¹² and this ex-policeman³ can testify that this plaintiff is a good person.

The European Committee for the Prevention of Torture

17. This plaintiff became tortured in 2013 so the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (CPT) really did visit him in torture chambers, and it bases reports (criticising violations against international laws) on interviews with him.

18. A defendant conceals this torture. She is guilty of torture (via connivances).

19. These defendants and Registrar Kevin O'Neill do not facilitate arresting these criminals concerning inter alia murders; torture; persecutions; perverting the course of justice; obstructions of the administration of justice; robberies; harassments; assaults; negligence; breaches of duties; misfeasances in public offices; and lies.

20. Torturers perpetrate disrespect against Irish.

21. This plaintiff used to be a slave in 2005; so he became tortured during 2013.

22. I aver that doctors wrote medical certificates for this plaintiff as consequences of this plaintiff becoming tortured in 2013.

23. We are appalled that Registrar Kevin O'Neill and Judge McKiernan are dishonest.

24. This plaintiff is a victim of widespread systematic persecution.

25. This plaintiff suffered considerable hurt, distress, embarrassment and injury to feelings.

The Language Commissioner

26. The Language Commissioner particularly confirms that the Language Commissioner upholds complaints by this plaintiff against this Department of pretend Justice etc. (e.g. Complaints G7343/2025 and G7177/2024) over using English when this plaintiff and a law demand Irish.

27. Cf. complaints against this Courts Service. E.g. C003/2025 (specifically about the very same courthouse in which these defendants purport to work); and G7081/2024.

109. A defendant never uses an interpreter for this plaintiff. She insists on the English.

110. The Judicial-Council Registrar Kevin O'Neill dared to lie that this plaintiff purportedly did not make clear to this Courts Disservice that court cases must be in Irish. The Judicial-Council Registrar Kevin O'Neill dared to lie that court cases do not need to be in Irish. The Registrar to the Judicial-Conduct Committee Kevin O'Neill acted in bad faith when he pretended that these complaints be not admissible.

Sections referred to by this Registrar

111. In relations to Defendants Mary O'Malley Costello and Ms. McKiernan, this Registrar refers to Sections 2 ("Definitions"); 7(1)(b); 43(2); 50; 52; 53; and 56 of the Judicial Council Act 2019.

112. "Review of determination that complaint, or part of complaint, is inadmissible"

113. 56. (1) Where the Registrar determines under section 53 that a complaint is inadmissible, the
114. complainant may seek a review of the determination by request in writing in that
115. behalf to the Registrar"

116. says an English version absurdly of this act! There are blatant conflicts of interests where "the Registrar" handles requests against writings by himself!

117. This affidavit is to support 2 such demands for reviews.

118. It is concerning that Section 50 and a complaint form do not encourage a lawyer to represent any plaintiff to the Judicial-Conduct Committee. These lacks of representations for plaintiffs show biases for these defendants (who are judges).

119. Section 52 says:

120. "(2) In specifying procedures under subsection (1), the Judicial Conduct Committee shall
121. have regard to the need for it to perform its functions in an effective manner and in
122. accordance with fair procedures."

123. The Registrar to the Judicial-Conduct Committee violated Subsection 52(2). This plaintiff submitted complaints on 17/06/2026 and 22/06/2026.⁶ This Registrar receives fewer than 1 complaint per day, so he is not overworked, but he took circa 1 month (on 20/07/2026 and 21/07/2026, respectively) to acknowledge that he received these complaints. This Registrar took more than 2 months (both on 31/08/2026) to reject perversely these complaints without even downloading the proofs! This Registrar disregards effective, fair justice!

124. Cf. this document's sentences on "Registrar Kevin O'Neill did not even download the proofs so how did he pretend that these complaints be inadmissible?"

125. "Functions of Council"

126. 7. (1) The functions of the Council shall be to promote and maintain—
127. (a) excellence in the exercise by judges of their judicial functions,
128. (b) high standards of conduct among judges, having regard to the principles of
129. judicial conduct requiring judges to uphold and exemplify judicial independence,
130. impartiality, integrity, propriety (including the appearance of propriety),
131. competence and diligence and to ensure equality of treatment to all persons

136. conduct requiring judges to uphold and exemplify judicial independence, impartiality,
137. integrity, propriety (including the appearance of propriety), competence and diligence
138. and to ensure equality of treatment to all persons before the courts.

139. Admissibility of complaints

140. 53. (1) On receiving a complaint, the Registrar shall determine whether or not the complaint

 145. (b) the conduct alleged could, if substantiated, constitute judicial misconduct by the
 146. judge concerned,”
 147. says an English version of this act.
 148. This conduct is clearly judicial misconduct. E.g. these judges refuse to communicate with this plaintiff.
 149. A dictionary⁷ shows: “propriety [. . .] n. (pl. -ies) 1 fitness; rightness

 153. This Registrar also refers to Section 93 for Defendant Ms. McKiernan.
154. “Independence of court and judicial functions
 155. 93. Nothing in this Act shall be construed as operating to interfere with—
 156. (a) the performance by the courts of their functions, or
 157. (b) the exercise by a judge of his or her judicial functions.”

 159. These judges do not exercise their functions for their duties.

This plaintiff in our community

160. I am a member of Labour.
 161. I know this plaintiff during each year of his life.
 162. One of my sons used to play with him before they emigrated.
 163. This plaintiff is an ethical, intelligent scientist, so he speaks agnostically, pedantically since his infancy.
 Cf. scientists profess measurement errors instead of knowing.
 164. This plaintiff wants his privacy. He volunteers information about neither himself nor his family.
 165. Newspapers – e.g. The Irish Times – and genealogy books publish many references to this plaintiff’s family. E.g. The Irish Times publishes a letter by him since 01/07/1998.
 166. His family is well known in this county. Our embassy in Portugal said to a lawyer⁸ that everyone in this county knows him, which I agree with.
 167. This plaintiff himself as a litigant in person without a lawyer went to the local police station to complain about crimes and criminals on 13/09/2025. As he normally does, he himself commenced that conversation in Irish by saying: “Haigh. Eh. Bíonn caingne uaim.”
 168. After more than 221 words into this conversation, Sergeant MH254 Anthony Malone absurdly and discriminatorily said: “Where are you from originally though?” Instead of attempting to perform his duties, Sergeant Malone asked “Were you born here?” and he asked “Do you not know where you were born?” and Sergeant Malone perpetrated assaults and battery etc. against this plaintiff later during this conversation. So this plaintiff went to these defendant judges whilst failing to get a judge to sign summonses against criminals.

Refusing to resolve problems results in repetitions of crimes.

Solicitors say they shall not sue judges.

D. R. Pigot & Co. is a law firm. It refuses to prosecute judges. Cf. this conversation on 20/04/2026 . . .

I myself: I'm interested in becoming a client.

D. R. Pigot & Co.: About to do with what?

I myself: Em. So I'm interested in using the Judicial-Council Act two thousand and nineteen at the Judicial-Conduct Committee against a judge.

D. R. Pigot & Co.: OK. Not interested. Alright.

I myself: Em. But you are listed on the Negligence Panel.

D. R. Pigot & Co.: Eh. Not for against judges. No. Against solicitors. OK.

I myself: Can you recommend who I can instruct?

D. R. Pigot & Co.: No. I can't. No.

I myself: Too bad. Bye.

D. R. Pigot & Co.: OK. Bye.

Solicitors "don't want to cut off the hand that feeds them if something goes wrong with a judge."

285. A Free-Legal-Advice Centre: and I could hazard, I could hazard I could hazard a guess and maybe many solicitors don't want to because, yeah, I suppose they don't want to they don't want to cut off the hand that feeds them if something goes wrong with a judge.

286. [. . .]

287. A Free-Legal-Advice Centre: Oh God definitely yeah! No. [. . .] We don't take on any of this. We're just a free-legal-advice. Solicitors boast without doing what they boast about.

Law Firm Hanahoe & Hanahoe LLP misleadingly advertised: "Hanahoe & Hanahoe LLP is solution based in all areas of the law." It made a confession to me that it does not really work in all the areas of the laws. It does not prosecute judges. [. . .]

A solicitor connives at a judge who dishonours a Supreme-Court judgment.

Law Firm Thomas Loomes & Co. spoke to myself.

Thomas Loomes: Well you'll have to check but ya you'll have to check the judgments.

I myself: I I did. I mean I I have read it. Eh. I I brought it with me to this judge but she refused to look at it.

Thomas Loomes: I'm sure she did. I've no doubt about it.

I myself: Em. So I mean how is this not judicial misconduct if she ignores precedents Thomas Loomes: Judicial misconduct. [. . .] Anyway. I have no interest. Sorry about that.

Lawyers deliberately underperform.

Criminals break an International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination. “Article 4 States Parties condemn all propaganda and all organizations which are based on ideas or theories of superiority of one race or group of persons of one colour or ethnic origin, or which attempt to justify or promote racial hatred and discrimination in any form, and undertake to adopt immediate and positive measures designed to eradicate all incitement to, or acts of, such discrimination and, to this end, with due regard to the principles embodied in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the rights expressly set forth in article 5 of this Convention, inter alia: (a) Shall declare an offence punishable by law all dissemination of ideas based on racial superiority or hatred, incitement to racial discrimination, as well as all acts of violence or incitement to such acts against any race or group of persons of another colour or ethnic origin, and also the provision of any assistance to racist activities, including the financing thereof; (b) Shall declare illegal and prohibit organizations, and also organized and all other propaganda activities, which promote and incite racial discrimination, and shall recognize participation in such organizations or activities as an offence punishable by law;” said an International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination.

RTÉ coverage and international experts about polices

364. A BBC and Channel 4 publish allegations about misbehaviours by “the Metropolitan Police”. E.g. a prosecutor wrote on LinkedIn in January 2025: “Channel 4 alleged a few days ago that a police service of Northern Ireland and the Metropolitan Police illegally used to victimise journalists who act against six murders in Northern Ireland in a pub which police officers are accomplices of. A German newspaper alleged during this century that a German tourism journalist was imprisoned and convicted in France because France alleged that tourism articles by him are espionage before the Twentieth Century.” Mister Freelance Emmy-nominated Filmmaker John Ulleri activated this comment’s ‘like’ icon. He says: “not an allegation but fact. A court ruled that The Police Service of Northern Ireland (PSNI) and Metropolitan Police acted illegally by spying on two Belfast journalists' to identify their sources. The landmark ruling was made by the Investigatory Powers Tribunal (IPT) in a case brought by journalists Barry McCaffrey and Trevor Birney.” Cf. “Current Affairs Roundup” on TV Station RTE News before during and after 8:15a.m. on 23/03/2025, republishing a night (not morning) interview with Barry McCaffrey. “Take care.” concluded this female presenter.

by Oslo University — “Effective justice and security systems are critical to help raise standards of protection of human rights in investigations, as underpinned by the UK Overseas Security and Justice Assistance (OSJA) Guidance; and this research and checklist will help to ensure that effective interviewing practice is maintained and implemented across the globe. Congratulations to all involved, and thank you for sharing.”⁹

371. Channel-4 News reported on 21/03/2025 about disciplinary proceedings against police officers in the UK who let a murder happen.

372. Since 23/03/2025, Asbjørn Rachlew calls Mick Confrey an “innsightfull contributor”.

⁹ Liked by inter alia Anthony Reseigh (Detective Superintendent - Met Operations) and Richard K. (Detective Inspector at Homicide Command. Metropolitan Police. New Scotland Yard).

We insist on investigations.

373. We are sorry that we insist on investigations.

374. We are dissatisfied because these defendants do not answer questions; and because a defendant refuses to sign summonses.

Registrar Kevin O'Neill did not even download the proofs so how did he pretend that these complaints be inadmissible?

375. Disregarding truths is clear evidence of malice by a defendant.

376. This plaintiff publishes proofs via a website. These complaint forms –

394. 2 Mondays later on 31/08/2026 Kevin O'Neill posted 2 declarations that these complaints be not admissible, with confirming that he did not listen to a recording from in front of Court 1 and without denying that he ignores the proofs. E.g. he could have written that he used the Internet to work at his home (Fiosrú employs a relevant employee who did explain that he works outside of an office), but Kevin O'Neill was not bothered to add this would-have-been pretence to the pretences which he practises already.

431. Lest the Judicial Council would dishonestly dare to rewrite history by pretending that the reference to “vpn.judicialcouncil.ie” above prove that the Judicial Council were downloading from this website, please bear in mind that a single Internet-Protocol address refers to many domains. Specifically –
432. “host 137.191.225.98
433. 98.225.191.137.in-addr.arpa domain name pointer vpn.judiciary.ie.

436. said a computer.
437. IP Address 137.191.225.98 appears 55 times in this subset and only for 1 folder. Specifically, IP Address 137.191.225.98 did not download from the subfolder specifically about Defendant Mary O’Malley Costello in this subset during or before Kevin O’Neill declared a complaint against her be not admissible! Judicial-Council Registrar Kevin O’Neill connives!
438. The only folder in this subset which IP Address 137.191.225.98 has downloaded from has many more than 600 files. I.e. IP Address 137.191.225.98 ignored greater than 90% of the files in this folder!

510. Caroline Haughey KC, prosecuting, told jurors during the trial: "Lydia Mugambe has exploited and abused [her alleged victim], taking advantage of her lack of understanding of her rights to properly paid employment and deceiving her as to the purpose of her coming to the UK."

511. She alleged Mugambe, who was studying for a law PhD at the University of Oxford, had conspired with Ugandan deputy high commissioner John Leonard Mugerwa to arrange for the young woman to come to the UK.

512. Prosecutors said the pair participated in a "very dishonest" trade-off, in which Mr Mugerwa arranged for the Ugandan High Commission to sponsor the woman's entrance into the UK.

513. [. . .]

514. She was also found guilty of conspiring to intimidate the woman to withdraw her support for the prosecution, and to have the charges against her dropped.

517. At circa 11:21a.m. on 20/03/2025, Freedom Hive Uganda wrote: "thank you for bringing this judgment forward in this conversation on torture. Justice Mugambe's case represents many other cases of forced labor in Uganda mostly perpetuated by high profile government officials. Many under age girls are used as maids in Uganda, others are sold to Neighboring Kenya, girls and women are then used as maids while others offer labour in grain factories. Freedom Hive Uganda once held an engagement with leaders from Karamoja a region that suffer from gross human rights abuses including rape, child labour, torture and extra judicial killings. We discovered and exposed lot of cruel things, unfortunately our work was put on hold when we got death threats from the army which was implicated in the abuses. Like Sonya [Sonya Sceats \(Chief Executive at Freedom from Torture\)] said, the risk is too much, we are just lucky that we are still alive, it's purely difficult to work in Uganda where killing, kidnapping, imprisonment or even forced labor are not penalized."

Doctor Stephen T. Manning concerning the Judicial-Conduct Committee

568.

Sounds great, but perhaps these declarations are a touch premature, given that the JC hasn't even assigned any Judicial Conduct Committee members yet?

On the other hand, maybe they are clairvoyant, given that the 'newly-appointed' Secretary already knew he had the job a full 6 months before it was publically advertised..?

JUDICIAL ACCOUNTABILITY - IRISH STYLE!

The new Judicial Council Bill provides a mechanism to sanction errant judges. BUT... sanctions will be held 'in secret' and if anyone names a judge who has been found guilty of misconduct - then that person can go to jail for a year and/or face up to €5,000 in fines!

And THIS is what we have been waiting for for over 20 years!?

Copyright 2020 by the Integrity Ireland Association

The new Judicial Council has finally been set up, and despite being top-heavy with judges, they are seeking applications from members of the public to be appointed to one of the three ‘independent’ committees. In a genuine spirit of public service and, curious as to what the response might be, Stephen applied for posts in two of the committees.

Application for Appointment to the Judicial Conduct Committee – 2-page Cover Letter

Dear Appointments Panel Staff;

May 1st 2020

I write in context of the attached 4-page ‘CV and Resume’ summary in support of my application to be considered for appointment to the Judicial Conduct Committee of the new Judicial Council.

I open by emphasising, most sincerely, that I have always had the utmost respect for justice; and have long-since recognised that no self-respecting nation can aspire to democracy without first ensuring an effective justice system. Indeed, this is what has informed and driven my work with the Integrity Ireland Association these past eight years. This is also why the EU’s Copenhagen Protocols insists upon the same, and why the United Nations’ internationally-recognised Bangalore Principles promote, “independence, impartiality, integrity, propriety, equality, competence and diligence” as ethical essentials for serving judges, and as reflected in the various judicial codes and oaths of office.

These ubiquitous declarations did not, however, prevent a consortium of senior judges in the OECD from setting up the Judicial Integrity Group in 2000, “..in response to declining levels of public confidence in the judiciary” – thereby acknowledging the unsettling gap between official aspirations; the reality on the ground; and the public’s perception of the same. Interestingly, the setting up of the J.I.G. mirrored Ireland’s tentative discussions in 1999 about the urgent need for a judicial oversight body after the fallout from the Sheedy affair. Now, our Judicial Council has finally been established and, despite the 20 long-and-tortuous years to launch, we must collectively maintain hope that this is the beginning of some much-needed reform and improvements in the management and application of justice. It needs to be clearly stated at the outset however, that inasmuch as it is humanly possible to do so, the membership and workings of the Judicial Council must be beyond public suspicion of mere tokenism, and/or of a ‘jobs for the boys’ culture, because the Judicial Conduct Committee in particular, will in effect be the ultimate oversight body in the State, inasmuch as it will oversee the conduct of those who already command final authority in the highest existing statutory oversight institutions – namely, in the nation’s Courts.

It would be less than forthright of me if I did not at this point, draw the Panel’s attention to the fact that not only have I fielded numerous justice-related complaints from members of the public, but that I have, regrettably, had valid legal cause to lodge a number of formal complaints about the conduct and behaviour of certain judges. In context of this application for prospective appointment to the J.C.C., this fact should not be misinterpreted as any purported ‘conflict of interest’ upon which erroneous assumption my application could then be rejected. On the contrary, the lodging of those formal complaints was and is, somewhat ironically, as a direct and explicit consequence of; (i) the unlawful behaviour of certain named judges; (ii) the absence (to date) of any genuine judicial oversight in this State; and (iii) because of the reporting obligations of the respective Criminal Justice Acts whereby all residents and citizens are required, by law, to report certain crimes.

I have also initiated, and/or participated in a number of Court cases variously as; the plaintiff; the defendant; the applicant; the respondent; a witness; a McKenzie friend; and as a lay-prosecutor, and in the process have gathered a solid understanding of the divergences between natural and positive law and between primary and secondary legislation; in context of the overarching primacy of newly-evolving EU Law.

In short, that it has been my dogged adherence to the Rule of Law and my insistence that justice be done that has resulted in over ten years of deeply-unsettling experiences in our Courts, which in turn, has raised profound questions about the overall probity and integrity of our justice system. Far from this creating any purported 'conflict of interest' these experiences render me uniquely qualified for appointment to the J.C.C. on the combined grounds that:

- I am a well-educated, professional layperson with over ten years' intimate, personal knowledge and experience of all of the Irish Courts.
- I maintain a deep and abiding respect for the principles of justice, and for the Rule of Law.
- There are no technical, professional, moral, political, personal or logistical impediments to my appointment. Indeed, the fact alone that I have never held any State-sponsored position underlines my inherent independence, my professional objectivity and political impartiality.
- I understand the disparity between the public's perception of 'the administration of justice' and the actual functions and procedural constraints, when seeking remedy in the Courts.
- I understand that individual judges, regardless of experience or qualifications, cannot be expected to have a perfect, comprehensive and consistent understanding of the law at all times and in every situation – despite the expectation that they project this to the public.

The prevailing socio-political culture under which most public appointments are made in Ireland has always been problematic precisely because of glaring (if unspoken) conflicts of interest. The only real danger of any such 'conflicts' arising in the J.C.C. would be in the appointment of persons who have a vested interest, however minimal, in the suppression of uncomfortable truths. There is already a perceived conflict in the dual declared objectives of; (i) addressing allegations of wrongdoing whilst at the same time, (ii) maintaining public confidence in the judiciary. It seems to me that the latter will naturally follow from robust and authentic oversight.

Finally, I note that my work with the Integrity Ireland Association is almost exactly defined in the five stated criteria for qualification to the J.C.C., namely: (i) The maintenance of standards in regulated professions; (ii) dealing with complaints made against members (of those professions); (iii) mediation and dispute resolution (both within the I-I Association and in the Courts); (iv) (concerning) the administration of justice; and (v) the management and provision of services to the public.

It is upon these collective grounds that I respectfully submit this application.

Sincerely,

Dr Stephen T Manning (etc)
